

10 Commandments of Life Group

1. Attendance - Please arrive as close to 6:30pm as possible. I promise to end as close to 8:30pm as possible. If you are going to be late/can't come, please text me.
2. Materials - Please come prepared with your bible and our study book so you are ready to participate.
3. Contribution - Please plan to bring food to at least one group meetings.
4. Participation - Please have your homework done and be prepared to participate in the discussion.
5. Sharing - Please share only information as it relates to you not any others in the group or outside of the group. Please avoid unsolicited advice.
6. Attention - Give each person your undivided attention when they are speaking.
7. Distractions - No crosstalk. If you don't know what that means, ask.
8. Extras - No alcohol, no drugs. If you arrive high or drunk I will put you in an Uber home.
9. Relationships - No dating/relationships in the group. Your significant other may only enter the group by marriage. If feelings develop within the group, one of you must leave the group.
10. Confidentiality - What happens or is said at Life Group meetings, stays at Life Group meetings. No information will be repeated and MUST remain confidential.

I know most of the above is not fun stuff, but one thing that I want us to do most is HAVE FUN together! May we grow closer to God as a group and individually, may we love Him unconditionally, and may we serve Him as a community and in community.

I agree to the above 10 Commandments of this Life Group and will strive to commit to each of them to the very best of my ability.
