THE POWER OF PRESENCE

Africa

A primary source of their joy was being in our presence.

All relationships can benefit from the power of presence.

Presence has theological roots...

I pray that from His glorious, unlimited resources He will empower you with inner strength through His Spirit. Then Christ will make His home in your hearts as you trust in Him. Ephesians 3:16-17a (NLT)

The “New Normal” isn’t innocent when it comes to relationships.

Addicts don’t do relationships well.

Nomophobia & Technoference

“Teacher, which is the most important commandment in the law of Moses?”

Jesus replied, “You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind.’ This is the first and greatest commandment. A second is equally important: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.” Matthew 22:36-39

See Luke 2:41-50

Jesus was listening & asking questions

STOP PHUBBING:

The anticipation of what could be is not more important than who is currently in front of you.

But the Lord said to her, “My dear Martha, you are worried and upset over all these details! There is only one thing worth being concerned about. Mary has discovered it, and it will not be taken away from her.” Luke 10:41-42

We love others through our interest in them.

“My Fathers’ business”

Going practical:

1. Evaluate your own [digital] distractions
2. Identify your relational values
3. Power down occasionally
4. Install “speed bump” reminders

Speed bumps are installed between the impulse and the action.
