
For every one of God's promises is
"Yes" in him.
Therefore,
through him
we also say
"Amen"
to the glory of God.

Disaster Relief

Natural disasters don't tell us when or where they'll strike. Mariners Church is committed to responding as God leads. Please continue to pray for the people affected by Hurricane Florence. We have identified two local churches and will determine how to best support them in the coming days.

If you'd like to give* to the disaster relief fund or stay updated on relief efforts, search relief.

Donations will also go to those impacted by Typhoon Mangkhut*

PRAYER

If you're in need of prayer, our prayer team is available at the front of the Worship Center after every service. To submit a prayer request online, email prayer@marinerschurch.org

THE PROMISED LIFE

When Joshua was near the town of Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him with sword in hand. Joshua went up to him and demanded, "Are you friend or foe?" "Neither one," he replied. "I am the commander of the Lord's army." At this, Joshua fell with his face to the ground in reverence. "I am at your command," Joshua said. "What do you want your servant to do?" The commander of the Lord's army replied, "Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy." And Joshua did as he was told... Now the gates of Jericho were tightly shut because the people were afraid of the Israelites. No one was allowed to go out or in. But the Lord said to Joshua, "I have given you Jericho, its king, and all its strong warriors. You and your fighting men should march around the town once a day for six days. Seven priests will walk ahead of the Ark, each carrying a ram's horn. On the seventh day you are to march around the town seven times, with the priests blowing the horns. When you hear the priests give one long blast on the rams' horns, have all the people shout as loud as they can. Then the walls of the town will collapse, and the people can charge straight into the town."

Joshua 5:13-15; 6:1-5

Life for the Christian is about:

1) His provision, not ours

But the Lord said to Joshua, "I have given you Jericho, its king, and all its strong warriors." Joshua 6:2

The only thing we contribute to our salvation is the sin that makes it necessary -William Temple

2) His promise, not ours

Then the Lord said to Abram, "You can be sure that your descendants will be strangers in a foreign land, where they will be oppressed as slaves for 400 years. But I will punish the nation that enslaves them, and in the end they will come away with great wealth. (As for you, you will die in peace and be buried at a ripe old age.) After four generations your descendants will return here to this land, for the sins of the Amorites do not yet warrant their destruction." Genesis 15:13-16

For every one of God's promises is "Yes" in him. Therefore, through him we also say "Amen" to the glory of God. II Corinthians 1:20 (CSB)

3) His power, not ours

... have all the people shout as loud as they can. Then the walls of the town will collapse... Joshua 6:5

4) His plans, not ours

"Are you friend or foe?" "Neither one," he replied. "I am the commander of the Lord's army." Joshua 5:13-14
