

For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Volunteer Highlight: David & Susan

David and Susan went on a Faith Adventure to Haiti to help with disaster relief. Now, over eight years later, they continue to lead the Haiti ministry. "After the earthquake, Susan decided to go to Haiti with or without me," David said. "So, I went with her. It allowed me to reconnect with my faith. I fell in love with Pastor Sam, his vision and the kids." Susan said, "Individually we're a small component, but as the church, we can have a huge impact. It's less about converting people, and more about how God's people can come together to strengthen our communities, serve one another and create a better world."

And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because he intercedes for the saints according to the will of God. 31 What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us? 32 He did not even spare his own Son but offered him up for us all. How will he not also with him grant us everything? 33 Who can bring an accusation against God's elect? God is the one who justifies. 34 Who is the one who condemns? MESSAGE SERIES

Resisting his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh as a sin offering, 4 in order that the law's requirement would be fulfilled in us who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. 5 For those who live according to the flesh have their minds set on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit have their minds set on the things of the Spirit. 6 Now the mind-set of the flesh is death, but the mind-set of the Spirit is life and peace, because the Spirit is God's love poured into our hearts. 7 The law was our bondage to decay into the glorious freedom of God's children. 8 For we know that the whole creation has been groaning together with labor pains until now. 23 Not only that, but we ourselves who have the Spirit as the firstfruits—we also groan within ourselves, eagerly waiting for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. 24 Now in this hope we were saved, but hope that is seen is not hope, because who hopes for what he sees? 25 But the hope that we desire is unseen. 26 Therefore we patiently wait for it, because we know that God's love is poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. 27 He also is at the right hand of God and intercedes for us. 35 Who can separate us from the love of Christ? Can affliction or distress or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? 36 As it is written: Because of you we are being put to death all day long; we are counted as sheep to be slaughtered. 37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. 38 For I am persuaded that neither death nor

SECURE IN CHRIST

To be convinced in our hearts that we have forgiveness of sins and peace with God by grace alone is the hardest thing. [Martin Luther]

Held by His purpose

We know that all things work together for the good of those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. [v.28]

For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he would be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. [v.29]

And those he predestined, he also called; and those he called, he also justified; and those he justified, he also glorified. [v.30]

Held in His love

What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us? [v.31]

He did not even spare his own Son but offered him up for us all. How will he not also with him grant us everything? [v.32]

Who can bring an accusation against God's elect? God is the one who justifies. [v.33]*

When Satan tells me I am a sinner he comforts me immeasurably, since Christ died for sinners. [Martin Luther]

Who is the one who condemns? Christ Jesus is the one who died, but even more, has been raised; he also is at the right hand of God and intercedes for us. [v.34]*

Who can separate us from the love of Christ? Can affliction or distress or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? As it is written: "Because of you we are being put to death all day long; we are counted as sheep to be slaughtered." No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord. [v.35-39]*
