

FOLLOW ME

“Of course it costs to be a Christian, but it costs much more not to be.” John Stott

When the days were coming to a close for him to be taken up, he determined to journey to Jerusalem...As they were traveling on the road someone said to him, “I will follow you wherever you go.” Jesus told him, “Foxes have dens, and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay his head.” Then he said to another, “Follow me.” “Lord,” he said, “first let me go bury my father.” But he told him, “Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and spread the news of the kingdom of God.” Another said, “I will follow you, Lord, but first let me go and say good-bye to those at my house.” But Jesus said to him, “No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.” Luke 9:51, 57-62

1. We forsake our security for a greater security.

“If we find ourselves with a desire that nothing in this world can satisfy, the most probable explanation is that we were made for another world.” CS Lewis

2. We forsake our identity for a greater identity.

3. We forsake all for a greater All.
