

STRANGERS IN THIS WORLD

Dear friends, I urge you as strangers and exiles to abstain from sinful desires that wage war against the soul. (1 Peter 2:11)

“My heart is filled with songs of forever. The city that endures when all is made new. I know I don't belong here, I'll never. Call this place my home, I'm just passing through.” Song: Exiles / Band: Thrice

1. To not belong here speaks to our privilege of belonging to Jesus.
2. To not belong here speaks to our potential in broadcasting Jesus.

Conduct yourselves honorably among the Gentiles, so that when they slander you as evildoers, they will observe your good works and will glorify God on the day he visits. (1 Peter 2:12)

“Here is timeless truth. Whether we like it or not, all Christians are an advertisement for Christianity; by their lives, they either commend it to others or make them think less of it. The strongest missionary force in the world is the Christian life.” William Barclay

NOTES:

Reflection Question:
How are you “broadcasting” Jesus in the way you live?

Scripture from the CSB unless noted.
