

NOTES:

Series: On the Table
Title: Does Christianity oppress minorities, women, and others?
Date: Jan 21/22

"What I have said respecting and against religion, I mean strictly to apply to the slaveholding religion of this land, and with no possible reference to Christianity proper; for, between the Christianity of this land, and the Christianity of Christ, I recognize the widest possible difference—so wide, that to receive the one as good, pure, and holy, is of necessity to reject the other as bad, corrupt, and wicked. To be the friend of the one, is of necessity to be the enemy of the other."
(Frederick Douglass)

"It is quite clear that in this Christian re-evaluation of the human person, the philosophy of human rights to which we subscribe today would have never established itself." (Luc Ferry)

For those of you who were baptized into Christ have been clothed with Christ. There is no Jew or Greek, slave or free, male and female; since you are all one in Christ Jesus. (Galatians 3:27-28)

"The early church was attractive to women, including women of high status, because within the Christian subculture women enjoyed far higher status than did women in the Greco-Roman world at large."
(Professor Rodney Stark)

Love is greater than tolerance.

Reflection Question:

How is God calling you to not just tolerate, but love the people in your life?