Just Asking

Spend your next date night asking these questions to help cultivate an emotionally intimate date experience.

- What do you need more of from me?
- What are you still hoping to accomplish this year?
- What three words describe what you are most grateful for?
- How do you like to receive care?
- What keeps you awake at night?
- What is something not many people know about you?
- What kind of adventure would you like to go on?

“What would you do if..?”

Talk it out and ask!

- You can have superpowers for a day
- You could change something about your personality
- You receive a present you do not like
- You can bring one item with you on a deserted island
- You can choose your next-door neighbor
- You can have dinner with any three people
- You can have a shopping spree in any store
- You can plan your next birthday party
- You can have any view outside your bedroom window

"The goal in marriage is not to think alike, but to think together."

ROBERT C. DODDS

Fill in the Blank

Grab some coffee or tea with your babe and answer these questions the way they would. How many will you get right?

Food: I love ____ but I hate ____.

Pets: I could live with a ____ but not with a ____.

Cars: I could afford a ____ but I'd rather have a ____.

Movies: I would watch ____ several times but never again watch ____.

Fears: I would push myself to ____ but never to ____.

Sweets: I would eat ____ every day but get tired of ____.

Neighborhoods: I would move to ____ but never to ____.

DIY: I would try making a ____ but not a ____.

Work: I could work at ____ but would die working at ____.

Reading: I would read a book about ____ but never a book about ____.

Cultivate Curiosity

What is something you're passionate about, but people don't know?

1. What foods would you serve if you owned a restaurant?
2. What accomplishment are you most proud of?
3. What would you do if we won the lottery today?
4. What is your idea of a perfect date?
5. What would you do if you had a whole day to yourself?
