“Write to the angel (messenger) of the church in Ephesus: Thus says the one who holds the seven stars in his right hand and who walks among the seven golden lampstands...”

(Revelation 2:1)

Seduced by the world

Ephesus: “...you have abandoned the love you had at first.” (2:4)

Sardis: “...there are a few...who have not defiled their clothes...” (3:4)

Laodicea: “...because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I am going to vomit you out of my mouth.” (3:16)

Deceived away from the Word

Pergamum: “...you have some there who hold to the teaching of Balaam...” (2:14)

Thyatira: “...you tolerate the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess and teaches and deceives my servants to commit sexual immorality...” (2:20)

Persecuted for faithfulness

Smyrna: “I know your affliction and poverty, but you are rich...” (2:9)

Philadelphia: “Because you have kept my command to endure, I will also keep you from the hour of testing...” (3:10)

His people conquer because He conquered

“To the one who conquers I will give the right to sit with me on my throne, just as I also conquered and sat down with my Father on his throne.”

(Revelation 3:21)
